"Real Muslims versus Fake"

George Jonas incorrectly states that Islamic terror over the last few decades has claimed fewer non-Muslim than Muslim lives, with the total number of non-Muslim deaths being barely 20,000. Mr Jonas ought to investigate recent history more thoroughly: in 1971, Senator Edward Kennedy described the genocide of Hindus in East Pakistan (now Bangladesh). An estimated 2.4 million Hindus were slaughtered by Islamic forces over a one year period in that conflict.
