

Reaping what the Grits have sown

National Post

Published: Wednesday, August 22, 2007

Re: Send Singh Home, Editorial, Aug. 20.

In the case of Laibar Singh, we Canadians are reaping the impact of disrespecting democracy. Thousands of Sikh refugees, including many Khalistan terrorists, filed claims of human rights abuses in India and attained refugee status here. In many instances, their claims were invalid: India is the world's largest democracy and has a good human rights record. However, Sikhs often voted Liberal, and so these claims were processed. Canada reaps what Liberals have sown.

Ron Banerjee, director,

Hindu Conference of Canada, Toronto.