

What India's elections mean

National Post Published: Thursday, May 21, 2009

Re: Election Sparks 17% Surge In Indian Stocks, May 19.

The recent elections in India, far from being a success story, reflect the victory of Islamofascism in South Asia. The Congress Party implemented a system of "pseudo-secularism" in India that allows India's Muslims to practice shariah law in family matters. This system also diverts money to finance haj pilgrimages to Mecca and funds madrassas all over the country, while Hindu temples and institutions crumble from neglect.

More alarmingly, the Congress Party allows millions of Muslim immigrants from Bangladesh and Pakistan to illegally enter the country.

By voting for parties that support Islamist laws, Indian Muslims are subverting democracy and threatening to convert India into an Islamic state.

Ron Banerjee, director, Canadian Hindu Advocacy, Toronto.